

Data Protection Policy

In our commitment to protecting your privacy, we at Fineturf have developed this privacy policy to tell you about our privacy practices in connection with any personal data that you provide to us in connection with your purchases and accounts.

We collect personal data about you only with your full knowledge in conjunction with a purchase or your request for information on our products and services. We also allow you to specify how your personal data can be used by us.

We are fully compliant with the Data Protection Act 1998 and all applicable data protection and privacy legislation. We will only process personal data in accordance with the applicable rules and this privacy policy. All personal data will be controlled by us and never passed to a third party.

If you require further information on your rights under the Data Protection Act please contact the Data Protection Commissioner by visiting www.dataprotection.gov.uk

It is our policy that you should know exactly what personal data we collect from you and how we will use it. We collect personal data from you for the purpose of processing your orders or enquiries. We may use your personal data to supply products and services that you have requested, carry out any agreement with you or take any steps that you have requested. In particular we may:

- i. Update you as to the status of your order
- ii. Alert you of issues or circumstances which may affect your order or our services to you
- iii. Ensure that you are properly treated and receive our best attention and service

In addition to the above uses, where you have given us appropriate permission, we may also use your personal data for the following additional purposes and direct marketing

- i. Tell you about special discounts on additional products and services
- ii. Advise you about new products and services
